

TANAACK announced strategic partnership with AXIS (TYO:4012) for ImmuniWeb DevSecOps best practice distribution

4th Mar 2022

TOKYO - TANAACK K.K. (Headquarters: Tokyo, Japan; CEO: Shoichiro Tanaka, “TANAACK”) announced strategic partnership with AXIS CO.,LTD.( Headquarters: Tokyo, Japan CEO:Hirofumi Ogura, “AXIS”) about ImmuniWeb DevSecOps best practice distribution.

Comment from Security Service Division, AXIS

Cloud systems is increasing as customers realizes digital transformation, and this leads to an increase in the number of security incidents caused by web applications. Conventional development styles often lack security considerations in each phase of development, which increases the risk of vulnerabilities. By using ImmuniWeb®, which we are selling this time, customers can develop more secure products by enabling automated security checks at each phase of development.

Comment from Masayoshi Aoki COO, TANAACK

Our core growth-as-a-service “HITSERIES” often offers Fortune Global 500 to migrate industry assets into a cloud-based SaaS start-up business. We integrate ImmuniWeb as competitive architectural core of our DevSecOps. We believe that our partnership with Axis, with its experience in traditional banking systems as well as in modern cloud-based fintech, is an important milestone for our ImmuniWeb market penetration in Japan.
